

AN INVITATION to FREE GREEN TRAINING

FROM: The City of Columbus

FOR: Green Rehab Lab 2

TOPICS: Working Green Right...Achieving the AWARE Standards Training by Armand Magnelli of Livable Housing, Inc. has worked in the affordable housing field for over 20 years and is a nationally recognized expert on a number of topics, including healthy/energy efficient /green housing rehab and development.

Demonstrations by various vendors of green products and techniques will be on site.

WHY: On going green learning for Contractors and Builders who are currently on the City/County Contractor Participation List for NSP. We will have new and repeat demonstrations; Feel free to invite workers and subcontractors

WHEN: Thursday April 8, 2010 from 1:30pm. to 4:30pm

WHERE: Vacant Houses at: 847-849 & 851-853 S. 18th St.
The street is one way going north to Livingston between
E. Columbus St. and Forest St.

Please RSVP by email to Randi Arnett at rlarnett@columbus.gov

This session is supported by U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Enterprise Green Communities
<http://www.greencommunitiesonline.org/>

Home Depot
<http://www6.homedepot.com/ecoptions/index.html>

The Affordable Housing Trust for Columbus and Franklin County
<http://thehousingtrust.org/>